POSITION Michael Fedarcyk serves as the Senior Counterintelligence Officer.

EXPERIENCE Prior to his arrival in March 2019 as the Senior Counterintelligence (CI) Officer, Mike Fedarcyk spent 10 years as a Senior Advisor to the Deputy Director, Counterintelligence Directorate, Office of Intelligence and Counterintelligence, Department of Energy (DOE). In that role, he provided subject matter expertise to the planning, execution and management of the counterintelligence program across the complex. His support of the DOE CI program included guidance in investigations, operations, inspections and liaison across the DOE complex and Headquarters. He has intimate knowledge of United States Intelligence Community (USIC) statutes, policies, executive orders and procedures issued by the Department of Justice for intelligence activities. He coordinated support for DOE CI equities with several USIC agencies to include the Department of Justice on counterintelligence matters. He has lectured across the DOE complex regarding CI issues.

Prior to joining the DOE CI program, Mike Fedarcyk was a Special Agent in the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for 24 years and attained the rank of the Senior Executive Service. His assignments included leading the National Security Law Unit, the Counterterrorism Communications Exploitation Section and in his last Assignment, he served as a Special Assistant to the Deputy Director, FBI.
